Mission

To provide assistance to individuals in domestic violence by helping them identify and practice techniques to reduce or eliminate violent behaviors with intimate partners and family members. Support the Gila River Indian Community in its efforts to reduce violence in the Community.

What is Domestic Violence?

“Domestic violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in any relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another intimate partner. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of action that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone.” (Dept. Of Justice 9/2016)

Are you living with domestic violence?

- Have you ever been physically and emotionally abusive toward your partner?
- Have you asked your partner questions about whether they are faithful or expressing jealousy?
- Are you starting to feel like you are losing your relationships with family or friends because of your actions?
- Have you ever threatened to hurt your partner to get them to do something?
- Have you destroyed your partner's property or things they care about?
- Have you tried to stop your partner from going to school, work, or doing something they like to do?
- Have you ever forced your partner to have sex when they did not want to?
